Los estudios compilados en el libro analizan el papel y el impacto que la democracia cristiana y los partidos democratacristianos han tenido en la configuración de la vida política de Latinoamérica. Estos estudios nos muestran cómo la democracia cristiana en estas latitudes ha irrumpido en el campo de la pluralidad, en ocasiones acercándose al socialismo y a la izquierda, y en otras mostrándose defensora e impulsora de la iniciativa privada. Asimismo, dichos estudios han logrado introducir la realidad de estos partidos en un escenario más allá del catolicismo, es decir, como verdaderos grupos políticos que han luchado por instaurar la democracia en sus países, contextualizando la situación de los mismos en una época en que toda Latinoamérica era objeto de regímenes opresores.
