Ha voluto la bicicletta.... (Italian Edition) Federico Di Caprio

Plettro è un trentacinquenne romano che ama il viaggio, la bicicletta, la musica, il cibo, l'onestà intellettuale, l'osservazione dei comportamenti umani e l'ironia.

Tormentato dal desiderio di sentirsi utile per la società e di iniziare a dare un senso al proprio essere al mondo, decide di fare un viaggio solitario in bicicletta verso Santiago de Compostela, ascoltando musica, gustando le specialità della Galizia, confrontandosi con i propri dilemmi, osservando in profondità le dinamiche tra i personaggi che incontra e alleggerendo le salite del proprio percorso con le sue battute.

Lungo il tragitto, viaggia con un suo "conoscente", di cui si era sempre fidato poco e che aveva sempre sottovalutato.

Dialoga molto con lui e capisce che può finalmente stringervi un rapporto di fiducia, affetto, complicità ed amicizia: il suo nuovo amico Plettro.
