Un camino hacia Dios

Pocas personas despertaron tanta admiración, amor y respeto en su vida como la Madre Teresa de Calcuta. Lejos de los escritorios, se internó en las ciudades más pobres y se quedó para siempre junto a enfermos, moribundos y marginales. Lo hizo con la convicción de que ése era el único modo de honrar a Dios. Realista y práctica, sin nunca perder profundidad ni sabiduría, también dejó sus reflexiones acerca de temas tan diversos como el amor, el pecado, la mezquindad, el aborto o la comunión entre religiones. Sus enseñanzas se asientan en las palabras de la Biblia, pero se vuelven tangibles y posibles cuando la Madre Teresa las presenta desde su experiencia personal.

Este libro pretende ser, ante todas las cosas, un homenaje a la maravillosa existencia de una mujer que nos enseñó la vía para hacer del mundo un lugar mejor. Pero, además, pretende servir de guía e inspiración a todos aquellos que estén dispuestos a recorrer un mismo camino hacia ese mundo más justo que ella alguna vez soñó, un mundo en donde no sea necesaria la caridad, y en donde el amor termine con el dolor de quienes más sufren.
