Laura Duffy has been through some tough stuff—moving to a new state, starting her junior year in a new school, fights, kidnapping attempts, accusations, even explosions; but she's always had her friends to fall back on—at least until now.

When old enemies start new trouble, Laura finds herself feeling very alone with a God who seems to be asking her to choose between faithfulness and friendship. And if that weren't hard enough, Laura is confronted with the possibility that her new friends aren't really friends at all.

Join Laura as she tries to find the truth behind unfounded lies, restore old relationships, and figure out who's on her side.
