Christmas Crime (Shakespeare Sisters) C C Kirk

Ariel Nel finds the bodies of four young women who disappeared thirty five years ago when she renovates a house in Parktown. Ariel decides to investigate the murders, when no-one takes her theory that the women were not murdered in her house, but that the bodies were placed there later, seriously.

Mark Wilson is in the police station when Ariel arrives to report her shocking finding. His intellect is stimulated by the idea of a decade old serial murder case and he and his partner investigates the murder. Soon Ariel's investigation leads her to believe the women were not random victims and she together with Mark Wilson race to uncover the truth before the next woman is murdered.

They are too late to prevent the brutal murder of a former beauty queen with an inquisitive nature and a fatal attraction for the wrong men. It is a race that will pit them against corrupt officials and that will test Mark's closest friendship.

It will become a race for Ariel's life...
