If The Bible Is Really True...You Could Be In Big Trouble: The Superiority of Biblical Christianity

Ralph Filicchia

This is not your usual "fluffy" inspirational book. Instead, what we have here is an argument on the superiority of biblical Christianity from an evangelical/fundamentalist understanding--but without the usual built-in cliches. This is a blunt, no-nonsense book that could literally scare the "Hell" out of you, fearlessly written by a writer who takes no prisoners and who rejects all forms of political and religious correctness. An interesting and provocative book that could force you to discard some of the "religious pabulum" you may have picked up along the way. Partial listing of some subjects covered: 1) God does not love you unconditionally, In fact, He might not love you at all. 2) Referring to Gays as sex perverts is not unloving. It's a fact! 3) The Jews killed Jesus Christ. Believing that does not mean you are anti-Semitic--it means you can understand simple English. 4) A "God loves you" bumper sticker is the wrong message for the driver behind you. 5) C.S. Lewis is vastly overrated as a Christian thinker, and of no value to a mature believer. 6) You can and should know how to argue about religion. It was done all through the Book of Acts. Throughout the book the author argues with a "voice" who takes exception to some of his views.
