Stick Up Boys M. T. Pope

What happens when four high school friends use a man's manhood and self-image as leverage for revenge? Well, meet Brandon, Washington, Carlen, and Gary - all gay high school juniors at Jefferson High School in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. The four boys stick together through the good and the bad. But when they become fed up with being misunderstood and mistreated, they decide that payback is in order. One day they do the unthinkable - they mask up and kidnap a fellow student and tormentor and "stick him up". They record the stick up and threaten exposure if he ever speaks about it. After this successful stick up, they become greedy and decide to throw in getting some free booty and loot. In their last stick up involving a local high school drug dealer, the boys hit a few snags and things come to a nasty head. Did they do one stick up too many or will they find a way out and ride off into the sunset? Stick-Up Boys is about taking revenge into your own hands and the consequences that come with it.
