Access to China's insurance market is a much-coveted prize for insurance companies worldwide. Here now is a truly practical expert guide—the first in English—that clearly explains, in easy-to-follow, step-by-step fashion—not only how to gain access, but also how to develop and establish a sound presence in the Chinese insurance industry. No detail is left uncovered.

In this one-of-a-kind book, interested practitioners will discover:

- how to meet all legal requirements for examination, approval and filing;
- sample clauses, contracts, and forms, for various types of insurance, that are thoroughly compatible with the Chinese legal system;
- essential relevant laws and regulations presented in full text in high-quality English translations (side by side with the original Chinese);
- detailed accounts of risk management measures to stave off potential legal liabilities;

. . . and much more. The authors emphasize the practical context throughout, focusing on matters of particular concern to foreign investors.
