Miradas de mujer (BIBLIOTECA DE ESCRITORAS. B/E.) (Spanish Edition) Varios Autores

El relato de viajes escrito por mujeres tiene, sin duda, connotaciones específicas, como la afirmación de la identidad de la mujer y de su autonomía respecto del hombre, pero no tanto una mirada distinta (paisajes, monumentos, actividades humanas), sino otra percepción de las mismas, otro sentimiento, fruto de una situación personal y social diferente. Dichos relatos se han convertido en un conjunto de materiales de innegable interés en el ámbito de los estudios literarios y culturales, pero también para el lector común, que encuentra en sus páginas detalles de otros lugares y culturas. En esta edición se recogen textos principales de viajeras de lengua francesa por España durante el siglo XIX. Para su elección, se han tenido en cuenta diversos criterios: que fueran textos poco conocidos, que resultaran variados por los lugares visitados y que no hubiesen tenido una difusión previa en España. Esta antología, a cargo de Francisco Lafarga, nos ofrece catorce textos breves de viajeras de habla francesa que, a lo largo del siglo XIX, viajaron por España y nos legaron por escrito esa mirada, cada una de ellas a la vez tan única como interesante.
