The Farm (Oberon Modern Plays) Nell Leyshon

Nothing I do has changed. I'm doing what's always been done on this piece of land.'

The farm is running at a loss, but Vic is determined to keep working. He'll do everything he can, work day and night, but he won't admit that his small farm has no future.

As the rural crisis deepens the three generations of his family look for ways to save the farm. But tensions between the old and new worlds threaten to tear the family apart.
