This is a superbly illustrated new series looking at the unique works of renowned glass artist Dale Chihuly. Dale Chihuly is possibly the best known glass artist in the world, for more than forty years he has been creating remarkable works of art that explore colour, form, and nature. He has often taken his inspiration from the natural world - as shown to sunning effect in his outdoor exhibition at the Royal Botanical Gardens, Kew. Each title in this gloriously illustrated new series takes readers on a visually stunning tour of a chosen set of Chihuly's work and features a short essay that explores what makes each of his genres unique. There is a free DVD that provides a fascinating insight into the history of each and a chance to witness the astonishing creativity of the artist and his workshop.
