What would it be like to journey back to biblical times and talk with Mary, the mother of Jesus? To hear of Jesus' ministry from the one on earth who loved him the most? Here, through the eyes of the physician Luke, who later penned the third Gospel, Mary is vividly brought to life in a fictional account.

Looking for answers about Jesus, Luke journeys to Jerusalem to meet Mary. As he talks with this beautiful woman who is aged by time and sorrow, Luke hears firsthand the story of Mary's visitation by an angel, her betrothal to Joseph, and other scriptural events. Together, Luke and Mary travel to Bethlehem and relive the magnificent events surrounding Jesus' birth. The Gospels come alive as Mary marvels over her honored role as the mother of the Messiah.
